

Dr. Anderson's biography

Dr. Ken Anderson is a fellowship-trained board-certified facial plastic surgeon who has specialized exclusively in hair transplant surgery since 2003. Since that time, he has treated over 20,000 patients from all over the world at his centers. Dr. Anderson has achieved fellowship status in the International Society of Hair Restoration Surgery (ISHRS) and the American Academy of Facial Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery (AAFPRS). He is a diplomate of the American Board of Hair Restoration Surgery, the American Board of Facial Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, and the American Board of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck surgery. Dr. Anderson serves as an Adjunct Clinical Professor of Dermatology at Emory University School of Medicine, and an Associate Professor of Surgery at UCLA's David Geffen School of Medicine.

As the founder and medical director of the Anderson Center for Hair in Atlanta (atlantahairsurgeon.com), he is noted for performing the first complete FUE hair transplant surgery published in the worldwide medical literature in 2004 (reference: Bernstein RM, Rassman WR, Anderson KW: FUE Megasessions – Evolution of a Technique. Hair Transplant Forum International, 14(3):116-17, 2004). Dr. Anderson and the Anderson Center for Hair are the recipients of over 80 local, national, and international honors and awards, including a global award for Best Hair Transplant Surgery Clinical Case by the Aesthetic Multispecialty Society at the 22nd Annual Aesthetic & Anti-Aging Medicine World Congress in Monte Carlo, Monaco. He has been nominated by his peers as a Castle Connolly Top Doctor for 10 consecutive years and is a 10-time winner of Top Hair Restoration Surgeon in the Southeast USA.

Dedicated to education, Dr. Anderson is a clinical faculty member of two of the top medical schools in the USA. He has mentored over 60 physicians in one-on-one training sessions at his center, including multiple members of the ISHRS and diplomates of the ABHRS. Serving patients from 48 states and 53 countries, Anderson Center for Hair is a premier destination for hair transplant surgery. Notably, more than 5% of his patients are themselves practicing physicians and surgeons, a distinction that brings immense pride to Dr. Anderson.
